The Esmeralda Must Have Coal.

Accretico, May 19 - It seems now certain but the Esmernida must have recourse to ome desperate means to secure coal, for cal she must have, if she is to get back to hill. It is announced to-day that the Parite Mail steamship company has ordered its agent here not to sell the Esmeralda ant coal under noy circumstances. This vas-communicated to the commander of the Lamerabla, and it is now thought extremely probable that the Chillan vessel will take coal by force. This is tendent more probable, as it is almost certainly known that the Esmeralda's captain is now in communit of the Etata, have been been all the community of the Etata, have or harded her. Fort Worth on the 28th day of April, 1891, for the annexation of certain territory therein described as the Eighth ward to said city of Fort Worth. Affiants say that no election whatever was held for ten days prior to said 28th day of April, 1891, in said territory for the purpose of determining whether a majority of the inhabitants of said territory qualified to vote for members of the legislature were in favor of becoming a part of the city of Fort Worth, and that no election to determine said question has ever been held in said territory aforesaid.

Affiants say that the petition presented to the city council on said date aforesaid was circulated in an ex parte manner by the friends of annexation, without any notice to the inhabitants of said territory, or of an election, and without the presence or knowledge of those of said inhabitants of said territory opposed to annexation; that since said time the attached remonstrance has been circulated in said territory and signed by those whose names are attached thereto, who constitute a majority of the qualified voters for members of the legislature inhabiting said territory; that it is not true as stated in the affidavit attached to said peti-tion that twenty-one of the voters for memation as proposed. Affiants say that a ma-jority of eight of the qualified voters for members of the legislature living in said territory are opposed to annexation to the city of Fort Worth, and that the petition for annexation filed with the city council April 28, 1891, does not represent the vote of a majority of the qualified voters for members of the legislature living in the said territory therein described.

Mr. Darter said the council, after listen

Some of the aldermen opposed giving the Second ward two more aldermen by dividing it but there was no way it could be cur up that would not give any section more voters and taxpayers than the Seventh and Eighth wards combined. Mayor Smith said there was no use in getting a big lawsuit on the city's hands and the council should go slow. The remonstrance went to the city at-

The Committee on Public Grounds Reports in Favor of a Park on the Clear Fork-No Taxes are to Be Remitted.

The city council met in regular session last night. The opinion before the meeting was that the question of redistricting the city into wards would cause a heated discussion, but before the debate had proeeded far a snag was struck in the nature of a remonstrance from people living a the Eighth ward which showed that a clear majority of eight legal votes in the ward were against annexation. This was a sort of a bombshell in the camp and when the remonstrance was filed Mayor Smith the remonstrance was filed Mayor Smith said the council now had notice that a majority of the people in the district proposed to be annexed were opposed to the measure and there was no use in inviting a law suit. He did not believe there was a district judge in the state who would not grant an injunction if the city should attempt to annex. The annexing did not take place but the remonstrance was sent to the city attorney for his was sent to the city attorney for his one of the committee to redistrict the city of Fort Worth into wards according to the population of said city, I beg leave to re-port that I gioriously failed to elicit any consideration from said committee looking to that end, but that said committee has seen fit by a majority vote to report to this council recommending that the petitioners on the South Side, 111 votes, which constituted the full number of voters in said district, that the same be added to this city with representation as a ward of said city. which, in my judgment, is wrong and vir-tually disfranchises a large portion of citi-zens of this city of the rights, privileges and benefits that they should have as citizens of this city; and I further ask that the territory be not received as a ward of said city. But, in event that said territory will take the necessary steps to be added to said city as territory of same, that they be admitted as part of said city.

Exciting Walking Match Between Richmond and Fife Contestants - The Programme for To-Day.

The ten-mile walk was the feature of the day. C. H. Richmond, the champion pedestrian of Boston, offered to walk against any five men ten miles, the five men to walk two miles in succession, and to win Richmond was to beat each man indi-win Richmond was to beat each man individually and collectively.

Yesterday was set down as Dallas day on the Mai-fest programme, and some three hundred Dallasites were present to take part in the festivities. In the afternoon the band was out and dispensed sweet music until midnight. The crowd was estimated at 2000 people throughout the afternoon, and 3000 at night. The boys' races, the egg races and other sports were heartily enjoyed.
Capt. H. P. Shiel was chosen as referee

Capt. H. P. Shiel was chosen as referee and M. Finn was the first man to start against Richmond. The word "Go" was given at 4 p. m., and Richmond immediately went to the front, closely followed by Finn, but Richmond increased his gait and gained one lap on Finn before the first mile was completed. The pace was beginning to tell on Finn as he tried to hold on to Rich-mond's heels, and he quit before his two miles was finished feling very miles was finished feling very The next came Deputy Bell, and he hot. The next came Deputy Ben, and he strided out in a gait that was anything but a walk, but he could not get away from Richmond, and he continued to run, which the referee delared against him.

The best walker of the five men next, named Sam Day, and he walked his two miles in good time, but Richmond passed him twice, gaining two laps. Deputy Bell was not satisfied and he was allowed to try it again and on again walkpressing him to do his utmost never trying to pass him but got at his elbow and psresed the gait. Bell commenced to weaken on the first mile and dropped at the starting point in a faithful expension. in a fainting condition. The last man to toe the scratch was booked as the "dark horse," but Richmond kept him on a trot to keep up which winded him before the first mile, and he quit, saying "enough."

The referee declared the race in Richmond's favor, but Richmond wanted to go the ten miles as advertised, but was told the ten miles as advertised, but was told a was not necessary. He completed nive miles and seven laps in 44 minutes and 11 seconds, and could have done better if pressed. Richmond is a splendid walker with a long stride, and after the race gave an exhibition of running and walking. At night Richmond gave another exhibi-tion, and the club managers have persuaded him to walk a mite every night.

Last night dancing was the chief attraction, and the payillon was crowded. The following has been fixed as
